A trip to New York

29 April 2017, 18:15

I know this might sound a little rushed but my husband and myself would like to take a city break in New York in mid-June, preferably on a long weekend.
Would you have any deals available at that time?
We would really appreciate a fine luxury hotel with a good location.
Details about transportation would be welcome as well as tips on what to do and see in the city in such short time.

Thanks so much in advance.
